Notes to Financial Instruments

1. Qualitative Information on Financial Instruments

The Company and its subsidiaries limit their investment of temporary surpluses to short-term deposits and procure funds for capital investment and working capital through bank loans.

Trade notes and accounts receivable, which are claimable assets, are subject to customer credit risk. Also, certain receivables are denominated in foreign currencies, and therefore entail exchange rate fluctuation risk. The Company uses forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge this risk.

Short-term investment securities and investment securities are mainly equity securities and the Company reviews the market values on a quarterly basis for listed securities.

Most accounts payable, which are trade liabilities, are payable within a short term. Certain payables are denominated in foreign currencies and are therefore subject to exchange rate fluctuation risk. Forward foreign exchange contracts are used to hedge this risk.

Short-term loans payable includes mainly funds raised as working capital in relation to crude oil imports. Long-term loans payable mainly comprise funds raised for capital expenditure.

The Company employs interest rate swap transactions to hedge risks of changes in floating interest rates on long-term loans payable.

With regard to the execution and control of derivative transactions, authorizations and monetary limits on transactions and controls are determined in accordance with internal rules.

65.1% of claimable assets as of March 31, 2020 is for a specific major customer, who has a high credit rating.

2. Fair Values of Financial Instruments

Carrying values and fair values of the financial instruments on the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2020 are set out in the following table. The following table does not include financial instruments whose fair values are not readily determinable. (see Note 2)

Millions of Yen

	Carrying value	Fair value	Difference
(a) Cash and deposits	12,769	12,769	-
(b) Notes and accounts receivable-trade	40,302	40,302	-
(c) Short-term investment securities and Investment securities: Available-for-sale securities	1,049	1,049	-
(d) Accounts receivable-other	1,212	1,212	-
Total assets	55,334	55,334	-
(a) Accounts payable-trade	13,686	13,686	-
(b) Short-term loans payable	83,953	83,953	-
(c) Accounts payable-other	18,149	18,149	-
(d) Excise taxes payable on gasoline and other fuels	18,939	18,939	-
(e) Income taxes payable	90	90	-
(f) Long-term loans payable	43,086	43,184	-98
Total liabilities	177,907	178,005	-98

Note 1: Method of calculating the fair value of financial instruments and matters related to investment securities and derivative transactions

Assets:

(a) Cash and deposits, (b) Notes and accounts receivable-trade, and (d) Accounts receivable-other

As these instruments are settled within a short term, their carrying value approximates fair value.

(c) Short-term investment securities and Investment securities

The fair values of equity securities are determined by their quoted prices on stock exchanges. Since the bonds are settled within a short term, the Company deems the carrying amounts to approximate fair value.

Liabilities:

(a) Accounts payable-trade, (b) Short-term loans payable, (c) Accounts payable-other, (d) Excise taxes payable on gasoline and other fuels, and (e) Income taxes payable

As these instruments are settled within a short term, their carrying value approximates fair value.

(f) Long-term loans payable

For floating-rate loans, the Company assumes that interest rates reflect market rates over the short term and credit conditions will not change significantly after loans have gone into effect, so that the carrying value approximates fair value. For fixed-rate loans, the total amount of principal and interest is discounted to present value using the assumed rate of interest on new loans of the same type to calculate fair value.

Derivatives:

The fair value of interest swap contracts to which the special treatment is applied is included in the fair value of the hedged long-term loans payable because such interest swaps are accounted for as an integral part of the corresponding long-term loans payable (see “Liabilities (f)” above).

The fair value of forward exchange contracts to which the allocation method is applied is included in the fair value of the hedged accounts payable and short-term loans payable because such forward exchange contracts are accounted for as an integral part of the corresponding accounts payable and short-term loans payable (see “Liabilities (a) and (b)” above).

Note 2: Financial instruments whose fair value is not readily determinable

as of March 31, 2020
Millions of Yen

Category	Carrying value
Unlisted equity securities	242
Stocks of affiliated companies	15,198

Unlisted equity securities and stocks of affiliated companies are not included in “Assets (c) Available-for-sale securities” since their fair value is not readily determinable as they have no market prices and their future cash flows cannot be reasonably estimated.
